WHAT WAR HAS BEEN COSTING THE GOVERNMENT.

More Charter Money Paid to Some Transports Than the Old Hollos Were Worth-Over $5,000,000 Expended.

SAN FRANCISCO, July & In the fis-cal year just closed Uncle Sam has joured from his treasury into the pock-ets of shipowners on the Pacific coust about $6,000,000. The exact sum will onis be known when Russell A. Alger, secretary of war, makes his report to Congress—If Congress asks for a report and investigation of the expenditures of the wars with Spain and the Filiwhether the whole sum has been wisely expended or not is questionable. Some of it was essential to the business in hand; some of it was doubtless wasted. That vessels costing large sums Jaily were held in idleness at Manna and also in San Francisco until the department at Washington had made up its mind what to do.

Over $4,000,000 was paid by the government for chartering twenty-two vessels used on the Pacific for handling troops between San Francisco and the Philippines. These are the figures:

VOLCANIC SMOKE.

Honolulu Has a Taste of the Eruption of Mauna Loa.

The whole Island has been filled with smoke today from the volcano. A part of the time the sun has been almost hid by it, and at all times the mountains have been obscured. Old residents remembered something similar at previous flows from Mokuaweoweo, but none of the property of them recall such dense clouds of smoke as appear teday. Professor Lyons states that the smoke tose high in the air from the flow and was carried by an upper current of air to the northeast. Falling slightly it to the portheast. Failing slightly it came in contact with the trades and was brought over this Island. It is reported that Mani and the Kona side of Hawaii are also covered with the smoke.

People in town have all remarked People in town have all remarked about the smoke today. Portuguese Consul Canvarro, Captain John Ross and others, while out sailing yesterday afternoon were probably the first to observe the smoke. It then seemed to be moving high in the southern heavens. W. O. Smith was one of the first to notice it this morning that the mountains were obscured by the smoke.

PAID HIS WAY.

Texas paper A Texes paper says that Senator Chilton was traveling last summer in western Texas in company with a distinguished lawyer from Austin. The latter went into the smoking car and engaged in conversation with the conductor, telling the latter as a piece of news that he had just left Senator Chilton in the parlor car.

"Oh stuff!" said the conductor, "what are you trying to give me? Senator

"Oh stuff!" said the conductor, "what are you trying to give me? Senator Chilton is not aboard this train.

The lawyer reiterated his assertion, and was surprised to find the conductor obstinate in his incredulity. Finally a bottle of wine was bet on the identity of the man under discussion, and the lawyer went with the conductor to where the senator was sitting. Then the railroad man gave in.

"I'll tell you," said the loser, "way I made that bet. In going through the train I did not take up a single pass. I reasoned that if a senator had been aboard he would have been provided with transportation; but Senator Chilton handed me a ticket like the rest, and as that was not in line with my past experience. I was sure that my legal friend was getting the worst of the wager." the wager.

RUSSIAN CALENDAR.

The Russian calendar reform, bringing that country into line with the rest of the Christian world, will go into ef-fect in 1901. A commission of sixteen persons, nine of whom are members of the St. Petersburg Astronomical Society, has been appointed to arrange de-tails. Since the change was proposed, writes Consul General Holloway, there has been considerable opposition on the part of the conservative priests.

COTTON MILL TO PARLIAMENT. Alderman James Duckworth, the member of parliament for the Middle-ton division of Lancashire, has the dis-tinction of being the only member of parliament who has worked in the fac-tory as a half timer. He went to work in a mill at the age of six years, and in order to reach the looms was provided with a piece of wood. At the age of fourteen he was the support of his mother. He has had a varied career. He has served in the army, been a town missionary and afterward commenced He has served in the army, been a town missionary, and afterward commenced hawking tea. He is now one of the largest provision merchants in the north of England, and has upward of fifty shops in the neighborhood of Rochdale. He is an alderman of the Rochdale town council, a local preacher, and for twelve months was the president of the United Methodist Free church annual assembly.
